New York Stock Market

New York, November 27.—Buying orders which accumulated over the week-end stimulated the stock market for a time to-day. Some broker reported a large volume of business, and built traders said hopefully that outside interest had quickened after many months of pronounced apathy, and prophested a change in the market from its ultra-professional character. But the day's movement as a whole fell back steadily until little was left of the advance. Some stocks, including United States Steel and Hocking Vulley fell below Saturday's close. The action of the market seemed to indicate that it was still a transitory character, governed by the hour-to-hour movements of the dominant professional operators. Union Pacific was the most conspicuous stock in the advance, and gained 2 points.

The strength of American Tobacco

the most conspicuous stock in the advance, and gained 2 points.

The strength of American Tobacco issues brought these stocks into prominence again. The preferred stock rose 23-8, and on the curb the common stock increased its recent large advance by 21 points, selling at 511, the highest price reached since the final decree of dissolution was entered against the company, and within 9 points of the record figure for that issue. Call money hardened to-day, and some loans were made at 31-2 per cent, the highest rate since the opening of the year. The bond market became irregular after an early display of firmness. Total sales, par value, $2.978.000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales of stocks for the day were 509.000 shares.

RULING UPHOLDS STATE STATUTES

Effect of Judge Waddill's Decision Regarding Virginia Game Laws.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Norfolk, Va., November 27 .- The ef fect of Judge Waddill's recent decision respecting the game laws was not to ucclare the State statute unconstitutional, as supposed, but just the re-verse. The Federal statute, appar-ently in aid of the State statute, pro-vides that where under the local law the shipping of game out of the State is prointed, that persons shall not ship the same in interstate commerce. ship the same in interstate commerce, and it is made an oftense, either for individuals to do so, or for carriers to transport such game. The precise cases tried involved the shipping of same from Princess Anne county, certain transportation companies and the fourty decision was that as the State statute authorized the Board of Supervisors of Princess Anne in their discretion to permit the shipment of wild water fow from that county during the hunting season, and county during the hunting season, and county during the hunting season, and the supervisors had by proper resolution granted such authority, that it is proper that it is a supervisor of the proper dependence of the supervisors permit, and that hence there had been no violation of law, and the prosecutions were all dismissed. s prohibited, that persons shall no

Woman Who Killed Husband "to Save His Soul" Sees Her Mistake.

New York, November 27 .- The trial of Mrs. Francis O'Shaughnessy for the murder of her husband on May 5, "in order to save his soul," was com-pleted to-day with the exception of the summing up by the attorneys. The case probably will go to the jury tomorrow afternoon.

Dr. William Mabon, general medical superintendent of the Manhattan State Hospital, and a professor of mental diseases, was a witness called by the prosecution to-day to prove Mrs. O'Shaughnessy's sanity. Referring to an examination he made of Mrs. O'Shaughnessy's condition in the O'Shaughnessy's condition in the Tombs, Dr. Mabon said:

"I asked her about the prayer which she had said after she shot her husband. She said: I told God I had sent George to Him and for Him to be merciful to his soul." She told me that since then s...e had realized how foolish some of her ideas were, and especially saving his soul by killing him, but that she believed it at the time she shot him. She told me that white at Believue she had started to write a letter to George to let him know she did not think he was bad, but stopped when told she would be sent to Matteawan."

stopped when told she would be sent to Matteawan."

Tessie Hayes, the cighteen-year-old girl whom O'Shaughnessy loved better than his young wife, was another witness to-day.

"Were you engaged to George O'Shaughnessy?" asked Assistant District Attorney Edwards.

"Yes, sir." the girl replied faintly.

"When did you first hear that he was married?"

"On the Monday before the murder Mrs. O Shaughnessy met us and asked me if I knew George was her husband I told her no; then she asked George if he had told me he was not married. He said 'yes.'".

"Did you ever permit him to make love to you after that time?"

"No ,sir."

Shots Freely Exchanged in Riot Following Women's Expulsion.

Lisbon, November 27 .- The disorders which occurred here last night because of the expulsion of two Chinese women for the illegal exercise of a "cure" for blindness at one time attained serious proportions. All the streets in the centre of the city were occupied by cavairy, who charged continuously in all directions.

The populace, which was armed, offered firm resistance, and shots were cavalry, who charged continuously in all directions.

The populace, which was armed, offered firm resistance, and shots were freely exchanged. Suddeny a great explosion was heard on the Placadom Pedro. The cavairy galloped up, unstained the property of the cavairy galloped up, unstained the carbines and poured volley after volley through the windows of a cafe in which a great mob had taken refuge and barricaded themselves with chairs, divans and other furniture.

The mob answered the attack untiall the large panes of glass were riddled with bullets. Then they surrended with bullets. Then they surrended and a large number wounded on the floor of the cafe.

A similar scene was enacted at another store, where some of the Republican leaders had taken refuge from the furlous populace. The roters, unable to cope with the military, fied late taverns and other places, from which they hooted and fired upon the passing saddlery until the latter extreed and
